Q1 What are the strengths and weaknesses of your teaching assistant (discussion section leader, lab section leader, grader, or other assistant) as an instructor, and how might his or her teaching be improved?

- Very helpful and available to students
- Great instructor. Went above and beyond to ensure all students who showed up to office hours or recitation understood the material at the deepest level. Was also willing to meet with students outside of class you couldn't make it to class.
- Good TA, would be better coordinating notation with the professor. Use of too many greek symbols or other things we didn't do in class made it genuinely difficult to follow explanations sometimes.
- very clear and helpful
- i already submitted!
- The best thing about Evan as a TA was the fact he gave more hours than any other TA in the course. He would often stay well after scheduled hours, and he readily made extra office hours available more than any other TA. By attending recitation/OH with Evan, it was clear how much he cared in doing a good job teaching the material. He even held a 3-hour mathematical proof session one Saturday for us. Great guy, very good TA.
- great
- He is perfect
- He is a little confusing sometimes, but compensate with time invested and passion to help. He will stay with you longer than regular hours to explain something you did not understand.
- he is excellent
- Evan is very patient and helpful. He explains most of the things clearly. That said, I hope he could use time more efficiently.
- He is really willing to help students and his teaching is very organized.
- Evan has been excellent. He has been willing to review material thoroughly, concentrate on individual students' questions (my own very much included), and responsive to e-mail outside of recitation.
- Overall a good experience
- Evan is super helpful. I have had him for other classes and he is very good at answering questions and has an amazing understand of the concepts so he can convey and explain them well.

- Helpful in solving the problem sets, which were sometimes unclear. Clear explanations of concepts.
  - Evan did not simplify difficult concepts well. Furthermore, he made a lot of mistakes in his section.
  - dedicated to their job
  - Very patient and generous with his time. You can see that he genuinely wants to help. The only area of improvement would be more effective time management during recitation hour. There were times when he could get "into the weeds" with a problem and spend way too much time going off on a tangent and fail to cover the material in the time allowed.

  - Very nice!
  - really interesting and very helpful
